

PROPOSED REGULATION 28.010

PURPOSE OF AMENDMENTS: To expand the evidence of notorious or unsavory reputation, as that term is used in NRS 463.151(3), to identification of a person's criminal activities with respect to wagering on or attempting to influence the result of a collegiate sport or athletic event in a published report by any federal, state or local legislative, executive or judicial body or officer, or by any association of colleges and universities devoted to the regulation and promotion of intercollegiate athletics, including but not limited to the National Collegiate Athletic Association; to take such additional action as may be necessary and proper to effectuate these stated purposes.

LIST OF EXCLUDED PERSONS

(Draft: 12/08/00)

28.010 List of exclusion and ejection.

1. Pursuant to NRS 463.151 through 463.155, the Nevada gaming commission hereby provides for the establishment of a list of persons who are to be excluded or ejected from licensed gaming establishments that conduct pari-mutuel wagering or operate any horse race book, sports pool or games, other than slot machines only.

2. The criteria applied by the board and commission for inclusion of a person upon such list are those set forth in NRS 463.151(3), any one of which is sufficient for inclusion.

3. Evidence of notorious or unsavory reputation, as that term is used in NRS 463.151(3), may be established by identification of a person's criminal activities in published reports of various federal and state legislative and executive bodies that have inquired into various aspects of criminal activities including but not limited to the following:

- (a) California Crime Commission;
- (b) Chicago Crime Commission;
- (c) McClellan Committee (Senate Subcommittee on Investigation);
- (d) New York Waterfront Commission;
- (e) Pennsylvania Crime Commission Report;
- (f) Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations;
- (g) State of Colorado Organized Crime Strike Force;
- (h) President's Commission on Organized Crime.

4. Evidence of notorious or unsavory reputation, as that term is used in NRS 463.151(3), may be established by identification of a person's criminal activities with respect to wagering on or attempting to influence the result of a collegiate sport or athletic event in a published report by:

- (a) Any federal, state or local legislative, executive or judicial body or officer; or
- (b) Any association of colleges and universities devoted to the regulation and promotion of intercollegiate athletics, including but not limited to the National Collegiate Athletic Association.
